

Johnny Has Gone for a Soldier

Irish-American Folk Song
for 4-part Men's Chorus and Piano

Arranged by Dean Rishel ASCAP

$\bullet = 67$

1 Tenor pp Here I sit on

2 Tenor pp Here I sit on

1 Bass pp Here I sit on

2 Bass pp Here I sit on

Piano p

6

T 1 But-ter-milk Hill, Oo_____ And ev - 'ry tear would —

2 But-ter-milk Hill. Who could blame me cry my fill? And ev - 'ry tear would —

B 1 But-ter-milk Hill. Who_____ could balme me cry my fill? And ev - ry tear would

2 But-ter-milk Hill. Who could blame me cry my fill? And ev - 'ry tear would

Pno.

10

T 1 turn a mill. John-ny has gone for a sol - dier,

T 2 turn a mill. John-ny has gone for a sol - dier.

B 1 turn a mill. John-ny has gone for a sol - dier.

B 2 turn a mill. O, John-ny has gone for a sol - dier.

Pno.

15

T 1 Oh John-ny John-ny

T 2 Oh, John-ny Oh John-ny

B 1 Me oh my, I loved him so.

B 2 Me oh my, I loved him so.

Pno.

19

1
T
8
John-ny _____ John-ny. _____ On - ly time can — heal my woe.

2
8
Oh _____ John-ny, _____ and — on - ly time can heal — my woe.

1
B
Broke mt heart to see him go, and — on - ly - time can heal my woe. —

2
Broke my heart to see him go, and on - ly time can — heal my woe.

Pno.

23 mf

1
T
8
mf John-ny has gone for a sol - dier, for a sol - dier.

2
8
mf John-ny has gone for a sol - dier, for a sol - dier.

1
B
mf John-ny has gone for a sol - dier. _____

2
mf John-ny has gone for a sol - dier. _____

Pno.

p

28

mf

T 1 I'll — sell my clock, I'll sell my wheel and buy my love a

T 2 I'll — sell my clock, I'll sell my wheel and buy my love a

B 1 I'll — sell my clock, I'll sell my wheel and buy my love a

B 2 I'll — sell my clock, I'll sell my wheel and buy my love a

Pno. mf

32

f molto cresc. f

T 1 sword of steel, so it, in bat - tle — he may wield, — John-ny!

T 2 sword of steel, so it, in bat - tle — ne may wield, Oh — John-ny!

B 1 sword of steel, so it, in bat - tle — ne may wield, Oh — John-ny, — John-ny. —

B 2 sword of steel, so it, in bat - tle — he may wield, oh — John-ny!

Pno. ff